Procedures for readmitting an individual or individuals not responsible for disturbing the conduct of a meeting shall be established by the body conducting such meeting. Duly accredited members of the press or other news media, except those who participated in a disturbance, shall be allowed to attend any meeting permitted by this section.

The notice shall specify the time and place of the special meeting and the business to be transacted. The action of the city council at each special session shall be confined to the subject submitted in writing to the city council, and the minutes of the meeting shall be entered upon the journal of the city council by the city clerk.

The governing body of an agency may hold an emergency meeting on matters of serious

The governing body may elect one (1) councilman to serve temporarily as acting president in the president's absence. The president and acting president, when occupying the place of the mayor, may exercise all of the powers of that office and have the same privileges as other members of the governing body. All acts of the president or acting president, while so acting, are as binding upon the council and upon the city as if done by the mayor.

The president and acting president of the City Council shall be elected at the first meeting in January in odd numbered years and shall serve a two year term.

A majority of the governing body shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting.

SECTION 2-10. ORDER OF BUSINESS.

SECTION 2-11. PRESERVATION OF ORDER.

The mayor or presiding officer shall preserve order, prevent personal reflections, confine members in debate to the questions, and shall decide who shall be first heard when two (2) members arise at the same time. Any member of the council when called to order by the presiding officer shall at once suspend his remarks.

SECTION 2-12. RECOGNITION BY PRESIDING OFFICER.

Each councilman before speaking on any question shall address himself to the presiding officer by his proper title, and shall not proceed with his remarks until recognized and named by the presiding officer.

SECTION 2-13. MOTIONS - GENERALLY.

No question on a motion shall be debated or put to a vote unless the same be seconded. When a motion is seconded it shall be stated by the presiding officer before debate or action thereon. Any motion shall be reduced to writing by the councilman making it, if the presiding officer or councilman shall ask it.

SECTION 2-14. DIVISION OF QUESTION.

If the question before the council contains more than one (1) distinct proposition, any councilman may have the same divided.

SECTION 2-15. REASON FOR VOTING.

Any member of the council may state his reason for voting upon any question either immediately before or immediately after the vote is taken, but he shall confine his remarks to the subject under consideration.

SECTION 2-16. VOTING OF COUNCILMEN.

Each member of the council who shall be present when a question is to be voted upon shall vote thereon, unless excused therefrom by the council. He may, before the vote is called for, give his reasons for not voting. If he is directly interested in the question he shall not vote. When he is on trial he shall not vote.

SECTION 2-17. RECORD OF AYES AND NAYS.

On the question of the passage of an ordinance or resolution the vote of the council shall be taken by ayes and nays and a record of the same shall be made upon the journal, which shall show how each member voted.

SECTION 2-18. CALL FOR AYES AND NAYS; RECORD; CHANGE OF VOTE.

The ayes and nays shall be taken at the request of a councilman, and a record of the same, together with the name of the councilman calling for the division, shall be entered upon the journal, which shall show how each member voted. Any member can change his vote previous to the announcement of the vote of the council.

These several motions shall not be applied to each other, except that the motion to assign, refer, amend or to close debate at a specified time, may be amended; and the previous question may be demanded upon the amendment, which motion shall be decided without debate. When one (1) of these motions has been made, none of the other inferior to it in precedence shall be made, and in proceeding to vote motions pending shall be put in the order of their rank as above arranged. No motion or proposition or a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color or amendment.

- (c) When adjournment was the last preceding motion.
- (d) When it has been decided that the previously question shall be taken.

A motion simply to adjourn cannot be amended; but a motion to adjourn to a time named may be amended and is open to debate.

SECTION 2-21. PREVIOUS QUESTION.

The previous question shall be in this form:

"Shall the main question now be put?" It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present, and its effect shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the council to a direct vote, first upon pending amendments, and then upon the main question.

When the previous question is decided in the negative, it shall leave the main question under debate for the remainder of the meeting unless sooner disposed of by taking the question, or in some other manner.

SECTION 2-22. MOTION TO LAY ON THE TABLE.

A motion to simply lay a question on the table is not debatable. A motion to take the subject matter from the table may be proposed and carried into effect provided that two-thirds (2/3) of the councilmen present vote in favor thereof.

A motion to lay any particular proposition on the table shall apply to that proposition only.

SECTION 2-23. SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS.

Any matter before the council may be set down as a special order of business at a certain time if two-thirds (2/3) of the councilmen present vote in the affirmative; but not otherwise.

A motion to amend an amendment shall be in order; but one to amend an amendment to an amendment shall not be entertained.

An amendment modifying the intention of a motion shall be in order; but an amendment relating to a different subject shall not be in order.

SECTION 2-25. MOTION TO STRIKE OUT AND INSERT.

On an amendment to "strike out and insert" the paragraph or sentence to be amended shall be first read as it stands, then the words proposed to be struck out, and then those proposed to be inserted and finally the paragraph or sentence as it would stand if so amended.

SECTION 2-26. INDEFINITE POSTPONEMENT.

When a motion is postponed indefinitely, it shall not be taken up again at the same meeting.

SECTION 2-27. RECONSIDERATION.

A vote or question may be considered at any time during the same meeting, or at the first regular meeting held thereafter.

A motion for reconsideration being once made and decided in the negative, shall not be renewed, nor shall a vote to reconsider be reconsidered.

A motion to reconsider must be made and seconded by a member who voted in the majority.

SECTION 2-28. PETITION, COMMUNICATIONS, ETC.

Petitions, memorials and all communications and papers addressed to the council, mayor or presiding officer, or presented by a councilman in his place, may be read by the city clerk at the request of a councilman or the presiding officer.

All petitions, memorials, communications and papers which may be filed with, or delivered to the city clerk prior to the meeting of the council shall be laid upon the desk of the mayor or presiding officer.

SECTION 2-29. RECORD OF NAMES OF MOVERS OF MOTIONS.

In all cases where a motion is entered upon the journal of the council, the name of the member moving the same shall also be entered.

SECTION 2-30. JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS.

The city clerk shall keep a correct journal of the proceedings of the council, and shall cause councilmen and officers of the city to be informed of such duties as they may be charged with by the council, from time to time, and he shall perform such other duties as appertain to him as city clerk. He shall not allow the journal, records, accounts or papers to be taken from his table or out of his custody, except by the regular mode of business of the council, or by an officer authorized so to do; and if any paper in his charge shall be missing he shall report the fact to the residing officer at once, in order that the loss may be investigated.

The journal of the proceedings shall be open to the public for inspection at all reasonable times.

SECTION 2-31. ALLOWANCE OF BILLS OR CLAIMS.

No bills or claims against the city shall be allowed except as authorized by written requisition, except salaries of city officials, and until approved by a majority of the council.

SECTION 2-32. AMENDMENT OR REPEAL OF RULES.

The foregoing rules may be amended or repealed at a regular meeting of the council, provided that any proposed amendment or repeal has been proposed in writing at a previous meeting, and provided further that a majority of the council shall agree to the amendment or repeal.

ARTICLE III. ORDINANCES AND RESOLUTIONS

SECTION 2-33. ORDINANCES - MANNER OF ENACTMENT.

All laws of the city shall be enacted by the passage of ordinances, all of which shall be reviewed by the city attorney. All ordinances hereafter adopted and passed by the city council shall be introduced in writing or typewriting. - (c) The mayor is entitled to sign or veto any ordinance passed by the governing body and to sign or veto any order, bylaw, resolution, award or vote to enter into any contract, or the allowance of any claim. A veto may be overridden by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of all the qualified members of the council. If the mayor neglects or refuses to sign any ordinance and fails to return it with his objections in writing at the next regular meeting of the governing body, it becomes law without his signature. The mayor may veto any item of any appropriation ordinance and approve the remainder thereof. The items vetoed may be passed over the veto as in other cases. The mayor does not have a vote in any matter involving the override of a veto.
